If Going Green has You Thinking of Baseball You're In Luck

As part of our annual fund raising efforts, the Pancreatic Cancer Alliance will be raffling off TWO MONSTER SEATS for a BOSTON RED SOX GAME!

If you win, you will receive two Monster Seat tickets at beautiful, historic Fenway Park for a game in late September. And, even if you don't win, you still hit a home run by providing funding for research and patient care at the University of Massachusetts Medical School and the UMass Memorial Medical Center.

Chances for these incredible tickets are $20 each. The winning ticket will be drawn immediately following the Golf Tournament on September 14, 2009.

So step up to the plate, and take a chance on the Green Monster!

Please include your $20 per chance with registration & payment. Your name will be automatically entered to win.

Being Green has Never Been So Easy!
